Washington and Lee Has Swat. fest With William and

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lexington, Va., April 7.—Washington and Lee had a swatfest in the game with William and Mary to-day, this afternoon gave the regulars of the game with William and Mary to-day, shutting out the Williamsburg lads by the score of 25 to 0. The varsity batsmen secured twenty-four hits, two of them being home runs, and scored in every inning except the seventh Gwathmey was in the box for the locals, and though it was his first game this season, he pitched in splendid form.

It was not until the sixth session that the visitors found him for a hit, when they falled to score on three singles. This was the only chance william and Mary had to get to the pan. In the first frame Webster bent out a bunt, and he and Brown tallled on the latter's drive for a home. From this on, the varsity pounded Lane hard, and had little quercy on Pritchett, who went in the box in the sixth.

Washington and Lee's base running was great and the fielding far better than at any time this year. There was a shake-up in the infield, as Coach Kennoy had Brown on third and Smith inc his place at second, while Irwin covered short. Smith has been out of the game with a bad arm, but his fielding, hitting and base running were great. Captain Stras was rapped on the arm in just week's practice, and was unable to play to-day, but Peeples covered the first bag in good style. Turbyvill, a new man in left garden, hit well, coming off with a home run to his credit. Brown led with the stick, securing five hits out of six times at bat. Score:

AMUSEMENTS.

Academy of Music—"The Mummy the Humming Bird." Bijou—"The Joy Riders."

One of the Season's Best.

Like Richard Carle, Marie Cahill surrounds, herself with good people and then gives them all a show. Miss Cahill is a whole musical comedy in herself, and she would satisfy the average audience if she kept herself on the stage all the time; but she is good anough to be beyond that favorite trick of the average star—she shines in almost any company and is not afraid of comparisons.

"The Boys and Betty" is a modest title. It might better be "Betty and the Boys" but the title sets the key of the piece. It is clever, witry, full of clean, up-to-date slang, and Miss Cahill is the star, but it is because of her ability. Everybody has a chance to make good, and that all of them did make good, and that all of them did make good is a proof of the general excellence of the company supporting one of the cleverest women in musical comedy. The fact that she has grown exceedingly plump—to use the prettier phrase—doesn't detract in the least from her absolutely fresh and original line of pure comedy. She never indulges in facial contortions nor awkward movements—she is just naturally

Paul Glimore Te-Night.

"The Mummy and the Flummins.
Eitd." which will be presented at the Academy to-night by Paul Glimore, is one of the best-known comedy-dramanow before the public. The play by the interest of its story excites and maintains by the natural sequence of tis incidents, by the dramatic keenness in which its plot is developed and by the brightness of its dialogue, has established itself in the general estimation as one of the best comedydramas ever presented before the American public.
